

MAGISTRATES COURT OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA
CIVIL JURISDICTION
FACT SHEET 24

MEANS INQUIRY
INFORMATION FOR THE JUDGMENT CREDITOR

What is a means inquiry?

An inquiry conducted in Court to determine the judgment debtor's means to pay the judgment debt.

The Court having regard to:

- the judgment debtor's income, assets and liabilities and, if applicable, the income, assets and liabilities of their spouse, de facto partner and dependants;
- whether there are, or will be, any earnings that can be appropriated from an employer;
- whether there is, or will be, a debt owing to the judgment debtor by another person;
- the existence, location and value of any property that can be seized and sold.

May make an instalment order or time for payment order

How do I apply for a means inquiry?

Complete and lodge a Form 6 - Application or request to a Court and pay the prescribed application fee (if not previously paid).

This form is available on the Magistrates Court website: www.magistratescourt.wa.gov.au.

On the application, you should indicate if you need the judgment debtor to produce any records to the means inquiry..

The Court will fix a date, time and place for the means inquiry hearing and will notify you of this.

How is a means inquiry summons served?

It must be served to the judgment debtor, in person, not less than five days before the hearing.

It can be served by a bailiff. The Court can arrange for a bailiff to serve your claim. Bailiffs are officers of the Court who are located throughout the State. You must prepay the service fee.

Alternatively, you can make arrangements to serve the Location of means inquiry

means inquiry summons yourself.

See Fact Sheet:
No. 8 - Serving a Court Document

A means inquiry must be held at the Court registry where the judgment was given.

You can apply for the means inquiry hearing to be conducted at another registry of the Court. Complete and lodge a Form No. 7 - Application

See Fact Sheet:
No. 21 - Application

Failure to attend a means inquiry hearing

As the judgment creditor, you must attend the means inquiry.

If you do not, the Court has the power to award costs against you.

If the judgment debtor does not attend the hearing, the Court order the issue of an warrant to have the judgment debtor arrested and brought before the Court. Complete and lodge a Form 6 - Application or request to a Court and pay the prescribed bailiff fees.

See Fact Sheet:
No. 35 - Warrant for Arrest

A person who has been summoned to attend Court and:

- a) does not obey the summons; or
- b) refuses to be sworn or answer any lawful questions;

is guilty of a contempt of Court.

See Fact Sheet:
No. 37 - Contempt of Court

At the means inquiry hearing, you are responsible for examining the judgment debtor to enable the Court to determine if they have the means to pay the judgment debt.

To help you do this, an examination statement is attached.

What enforcement orders can be made at or after a means inquiry?

The following enforcement orders can be made:

- ❖ time for payment order;
- ❖ instalment order; or
- ❖ earnings appropriation order.

Payments

Time for payment order

This requires the judgment debtor to pay the debt in full immediately or on, or before, a date set by the Court.

Instalment order

This requires the judgment debtor to pay the debt by regular amounts set by the Court.

Earnings appropriation order

This requires an employer, who pays the judgment debtor, to pay a portion of those earnings to you.

Before an earnings appropriation order can be issued an instalment order (see above) must have been disobeyed and cancelled.

See Fact Sheet:
No. 34 - Earnings Appropriation Order

You must provide the judgment debtor with details of where payments can be made. The Court cannot accept payments on your behalf.

It is recommended that you provide a receipt for each payment to reduce disputes about payment.
